

Character Decisions

Think about the character you have been given. What are their interests and what is their budget? Do they have any spending leaks? How can you help them to reach their savings goals? Make some good financial decisions to keep your character happy and solvent.

Do you need to make some decisions about ACCOMMODATION? Will bills and food be included in the cost? If not, make sure you take these things into account. Explain why you have made certain choices.

Does your character have any additional expenses? Have you taken into account SPENDING LEAKS? How much will this cost them each week?

---

How much is left at the end of each week for your character to SAVE? Have you left enough to help your character reach their savings goals? Is there anywhere you could reduce costs in the budget to increase savings?
